The Music Studio will be taking every precaution to ensure the safety of its students, faculty, and staff while COVID-19 is still a public health concern. Following the guidance of the CDC and New York State's Department of Health, social distancing, masks, and rigorous hygiene protocols will all be features of classroom instruction. We trust that our students and their families will help us all stay safe by complying with these measures.

Below are listed the class times and days for each age group. Please select the time/day best for you and indicate a second choice. We will call you to confirm your selection or to offer alternatives. This schedule is subject to change should we have insufficient enrollment or over-enrollment in particular sessions. Classes will begin on Wednesday, September 16, 2020.
