

THE MUSIC STUDIO
Circle of Friends
Summer 2021 Registration Form

Circle of Friends is a music class for children with special needs and their parents. Taught by music therapist and educator Beth McLaughlin, this class helps parents connect to their children through music. Participants sing, move, and play instruments in an individualized and supportive environment. These activities promote social interaction, communication, and motor skill development. They enhance and encourage a child's natural love of music and give him or her the tools to make music as well.
